

THE DELIBERATIVE CITIZEN

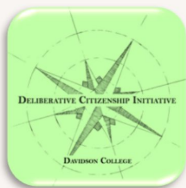

Δ Monthly Newsletter from the DCI

July 2025 Edition

Welcome to the fifth edition of the DCI's new publication, "The Deliberative Citizen." Read more below about our recent programs that wrapped up the 2024–25 academic year. You'll also find reflections from our Student and Faculty Fellows on intergenerational dialogue, deliberation in STEM, and embedding deliberation about equity and education in an online graduate course for future K-12 history teachers. Also, don't miss the spotlight on our new newsletter archive, a recap of the DCI's presence on the student radio station WALT and at the Verna Miller Case Symposium, and the recently published Honor Code Campus Conversation Report. Enjoy!

Contribute to the Deliberative Citizenship Initiative

If you like what the DCI has been doing to support more productive public discourse at Davidson – in the classroom, across campus, and in the community – then you are welcome to make a financial contribution to the initiative. Simply click on the link below, select Other under “I want to support” and type in “Deliberative Citizenship Initiative,” and proceed from there. Any amount would help us continue to do the work of bringing people together to discuss the challenging and contentious topics facing our society.
